testimonials

'Our family just love the beef schnitzels and the Drunken Lamb and were thrilled to be able to regularly purchase 'meatright' meals through the footy club. It's such a fantastic ongoing fundraiser'

Maxine M. of Parkside

'We now only buy our meat through 'meatright' - it's so convenient - we love the consistent quality meat for all our meals and it is great to be able to support the scouts and the football club'

Jo V. of Parkside

'As the school's fundraising co-ordinator, we are seeing the profits grow with such little time and effort as the system is so quick and easy'

Tiffany S of Parkside

'My son & I just love the chicken rissoles and will keep purchasing our meat through the 'meatright' fundraiser so we can raise funds for the Scouts to attend the 2010 Jamboree. It's a good feeling knowing we're contributing without breaking our household budget'

Lisa M of Myrtle Bank

'It's important to offer the consumer something they actually need & enjoy not something they feel obliged to buy - fundraising with 'meatright' everyone wins'

Helen S of Glenalta

'It's a great convenience to have our meat delivered to our workplace while at the same time raising funds for our favourite charity.'

Craig A of Novar Gardens

'I just love the convenience of the fuss free, ready to cook range of with marinated and pre-seasoned meats-it takes the pressure off the busy family'

Lizanne E from Belair

We all spend thousands of dollars every year on groceries, meat and fruit 'n veg. Now we have been able to turn that spending into fundraising profits to support our scout group and at the same time save money with the great prices.'

'I am able to feed my houseful of teenagers with nutritious quality meat - and buying 'meatright' meat helps me plan all the family meals'

Liz G of Fullarton

'We were so impressed with the presentation of the meat in the iced-cooler packs. The meat stays cold until I take my order home from the office and the sms reminder to collect my order was appreciated.'

Mary-Ann M of Glenelg

'This ongoing revenue stream is just 'money for jam'- fundraising with meatright is just too easy as one person co-ordinates it with huge returns compared with the little time invested'

Sean M of Brompton
